

January Teaching & Learning Programme

Book a place on any GMIT January session listed below here.

*New for January

Date	Time	Seminar/Clinic Title	Session led by
12 Jan, Tue	3-4pm	Using the OneNote class notebook for collaboration, group work and assignments. The Teams class notebook is the most flexible and powerful tool for Online teaching and collaboration available. Learn how to get the most out of it.	Dr Sean Daffy, GMIT
12 Jan, Tue	1-2pm	*MoodleMunch Lunchtime Webinar Series: Presentations on Gamification within Moodle to Enhance Student Engagement and Moving Institution Assessments and Grading to Moodle will be delivered. (More information and booking details are available here).	DCU; University of Gloucestershire
12 Jan, Tue	8-9pm	*Incremental Credentialing: Expanding Perspectives: This webinar dives deeper into the issues and trends of the learn-and-work ecosystem and role that incremental credentialing can play to advance education and economic recovery. (More information and booking details are available here).	SUNY, Empire State College, USA
13 Jan, Wed	3-4pm	*Microsoft Teams – Working with Breakout Rooms on TEAMS – a new feature just released in December.	Stephen Howell, Microsoft Ireland
14-15 Jan, Thu & Fri		*EdTech Winter Online Conference 2021 Paradigm Shift: Reflection, Resilience & Renewal in Digital Education (More information and booking details are available here). https://ilta.ie/project/edtech2021/	ILTA https://ilta.ie/project/edtech2021/ GMIT will be presenting at the conference under a variety of T&L projects. Best of luck to all of the presenters!
14 Jan, Thu	9:30am-12:30pm	*National Forum Seminar Series: Relational Pedagogy and Whole-class Engagement – Can it really be done? (More information and booking details are available here).	Dr Catherine Bovill, University of Edinburgh; Cork Institute of Technology
14 Jan, Thu	09:30 – 12:30	*National Forum Seminar Series: Resilience Building for Students and Educators (More information and booking details are available here).	Dundalk Institute of Technology
15 Jan, Fri	10am – 1pm	*National Forum Seminar Series: Using TEL to Personalise the Student Learning Experience in Large Classes (More information and booking details are available here).	University of Limerick
19 Jan, Tue	11am – 1pm	*National Forum Seminar Series: Telecollaboration – Creating International Bridges in Socially Distanced Times (More information and booking details are available here).	Robert O’Dowd University of Leon, Spain; Dr Una Carthy LYIT
21 Jan, Thu	10-11am	*Assessment Planning - Guidelines for assessment planning for an online module this semester	Dr Carina Ginty & Annette Cosgrove, GMIT
22 Jan, Fri	10am-3pm	*GMIT Digital Champions Insight Symposium: This online event will showcase the new online courses and resources developed by Digital Champions in 2020, following their engagement with the new level 9, Certificate in Digital Teaching and Learning at GMIT. There will be a 1-hour break from 1-2pm. The symposium will conclude with a keynote address from Alexandra Pickett, Director of Online Learning Design at SUNY (State University of New York) from 2-3pm.	Digital Champions from GMIT, IT Sligo and LYIT, Annette Cosgrove, Dr Carina Ginty, GMIT T&L Office and Alexandra Pickett, SUNY.
28 Jan, Thu	10-11am	*Assessment Planning - Guidelines for assessment planning for an online module this semester	Dr Carina Ginty & Annette Cosgrove, GMIT

28 Jan, Thu	1-2pm	*National Forum Seminar Series: Scalable Assessment Strategies for Digital Contexts (More information and booking details are available here).	Professor Diana Laurillard, University College London (UCL)
----------------	-------	--	---