#DigitalEd23

DIGITALED 23
ATU DigitalEd Conference

Wednesday 17th May 2023

Digital Transformation in Learning, Teaching & Assessment in Higher Education

9.30 -9.40am Welcome Dr Orla Flynn, President, Atlantic Technological University (ATU)

9.40 - 10.45am KEYNOTE 1: Neil Mosley
How do we orientate ourselves in a time of digital and teaching transformation?

Ongoing disruption and the uncertainty that comes with this can be disorienting particularly against a backdrop of broader digital transformation and advancement. Navigating these uncertain times will require being moored to something that transcends modalities, technological advances and any other volatility. In this keynote, Neil will consider how higher education might orient itself and navigate these times, exploring key relationships between digital technologies and education, as well as anchors of effective teaching practices and what we know about learning.

10.45 - 11am TU Transformation for Recovery and Resilience in Learning, Teaching and Assessment, Dr Carina Ginty, ATU N-TUTORR Institutional Lead

BREAK 11 - 11.20am

11.20am - 1pm Parallel Sessions
Session 1: Digital Transformation in Teaching and Learning
ATU Galway City, Room 903
Session 2: Students as Partners in Teaching and Learning
ATU Galway City, Room 994

LUNCH 1-2pm

2-3pm KEYNOTE 2: Prof. Gilly Salmon
Shifting to Sustainability: New digital futures
Exploring the sustainability of learning design.

Professor Gilly Salmon leads us on journeys towards achieving more and longer with less by deploying learning design thinking, tools, techniques and developments. Prepare to withstand the tests of aspirational goals, time, uncertainties and risks – with confidence!

3-4.30pm Parallel Sessions
Session 3: Embracing the Sustainable Development Goals
ATU Galway City, Room 903
Session 4: Academic Integrity & Artificial Intelligence
ATU Galway City, Room 994

CONFERENCE CLOSES 4:30pm

Note: Parallel sessions will be delivered by TU/IoT partners from across the sector. Full programme details are available on the conference platform. Register to access on this link: https://ATUDigitalEd23.eventbrite.ie

Conference parallel sessions will cover presentations from N-TUTORR partners including ATU, DKIT, IADT, MTU, SETU, TUS and TU Dublin.

DigitalEd 2023 will be hosted at Atlantic Technological University (ATU) in Galway on May 17. Limited spaces available on-site.
Hybrid delivery. Register for online or on-site attendance at this link: https://ATUDigitalEd23.eventbrite.ie

DigitalEd.ie

Ollscoil Teicneolaíochta an Atlantaigh
Atlantic Technological University

DigitalEd.ie

N-TU-TORR Transforming Learning

NextGen EU

NATIONAL FORUM
FOR THE ENHANCEMENT OF TEACHING AND LEARNING IN HIGHER EDUCATION

TIME	ROOM	SESSION TITLE	PRESENTER	CHAIR	THEME
9.30am	903	WELCOME	Dr Orla Flynn, ATU President
9.40am	903	Keynote - How do we Orientate ourselves in a Time of Digital and Teaching Transformation?	Neil Mosley, Educational Consultant & Designer
10.45am	903	TU Transformation for Recovery and Resilience in Learning, Teaching and Assessment	Dr Carina Ginty, N-TUTORR Institutional Lead, ATU
11am	Café Foyer	BREAK
11.20am	903	Student Experiences of ePortfolios within an Irish University	Dr Louise Nagle, N-TUTORR Institutional Lead & Dr Tom Farrelly, Social Science Lecturer & Educational Developer, MTU	Dr Sharon Flynn, N-TUTORR National Coordinator, THEA	Digital Transformation in Teaching and Learning
11.40am	903	Disciplinary Excellence in Learning and Teaching in ATU Galway First Year Chemistry Labs	Dr Aisling Crowley & Dr Cormac Quigley, Lecturers in Dept of Biopharmaceutical & Medical Science, ATU		Digital Transformation in Teaching and Learning
12pm	903	Using Digital Images in Presentation Technologies to teach Threshold Concepts in the Online and Face-to-Face Classrooms	Cliona Flood, Lecturer in Psychology, IADT		Digital Transformation in Teaching and Learning
12.20pm	903	Transforming Practical Teaching in the Digital Age: An overview and some findings from the multi-institutional Virtual Labs project	Dr Sinead Loughran, Lecturer in the Dept of Life & Health Sciences | Programme Director for BSc (Hons) in Biopharmaceutical Science & Dr Bridget Kelly, Lecturer of Microbiology & Immunology, DkIT		Digital Transformation in Teaching and Learning
12.40pm	903	Hybrid French Culture and Language-Integrated Content for Digital Transformation at the ATU	Dr Sarah Berthaud, N-TUTORR Fellow | Lecturer in French & Jean-Noël Vogrig, Transmedia Producer, Canopé		Digital Transformation in Teaching and Learning
11.20pm	994	Exploring AI in the Classroom: A practical approach	Dr Hazel Farrell, Programme Leader BA (Hons) Music, SETU	Noreen Henry, N-TUTORR Academic Developer | Lecturer in Computing, ATU	Students as Partners in Teaching and Learning
11.40pm	994	Stepping Outside the Box: The impact of experiential learning beyond the lecture hall	Dr Gabriela Gliga & Mary McCormack, N-TUTORR Fellows | Lecturers in Marketing, ATU		Students as Partners in Teaching and Learning
12pm	994	Enabling Enhanced Student Partnership through Online Training of University Policy and Practice: TU Dublin's Our Student Voice Project	Dr Ciaran O'Leary, Head of Learning Development | Faculty of Computing, Digital and Data & Brian Jordan, SU President, TU Dublin		Students as Partners in Teaching and Learning
12.20pm	994	"Moving Parts": The development of a student-led animation campaign on active consent, sexual violence and harassment, and bystander intervention	Rachel Skelly, Consent Officer, IADT		Students as Partners in Teaching and Learning
12.40pm	994	Navigating the Liminal Space: A cause for identity consolidation or disruption? Results of a study exploring the impact of clinical placement on student nurses	Dr Louise Nagle, N-TUTORR Institutional Lead, MTU		Students as Partners in Teaching and Learning
1pm	Café Foyer	LUNCH
2pm	903	Keynote - Shifting to Sustainability: New digital futures, Exploring the sustainability of learning design	Prof Gilly Slamon, CEO and Principal Consultant, Education Alchemists Ltd.
3pm	903	Empowering Higher Education Staff to lead on Education for Sustainability	Dr Mark Kelly, Head of Centre for Sustainability, Dr John Scahill, N-TUTORR Academic Developer & Dr Sean Daffy, Learning Technologist, ATU	Dr Trevor Prendergast, N-TUTORR Institute Lead, TUS	Embracing the Sustainable Development Goals
3.20pm	903	Applying the Sustainable Goals in the Classroom	Grainne Carroll, Assistant Lecturer in Computing, Design & UX/HCI, IADT		Embracing the Sustainable Development Goals
3.40pm	903	Teaching and Learning Contextualised Design Methodologies for Technological Sustainability and Resilience Solutions	Dr Sivakumar "Ganesh" Ramachandran, Engineering Programmes Co-ordinator, IADT		Embracing the Sustainable Development Goals
4pm	903	Connecting Software & Electronic Engineers with Nature	Michelle Lynch, Lecturer in Machine Learning w/ Python, DSP, Modern C++, ATU		Embracing the Sustainable Development Goals
3pm	994	Supporting a Community Approach to Academic Integrity with Digital Badges	Dr Ellen McCabe, N-TUTORR Teaching & LearningCoordinator, ATU	Dr Ronan Bree, N-TUTORR Programme Lead, DkIT	Academic Integrity & Artificial Intelligence
3.20pm	994	Understanding the Value and Practice of Academic Integrity in Professional Nursing and Midwifery Undergraduate Programmes	Ann Everitt-Reynolds & Joe Treacy, Lecturers in Dept of Nursing, Midwifery & Early Years, DkIT		Academic Integrity & Artificial Intelligence
3.40pm	994	Leveraging AI and NLP to Evaluate Sustainability in the Curriculum	Dr Cormac MacMahon, Senior Manager of Sustainability, Education & Innovation, TU Dublin		Academic Integrity & Artificial Intelligence
4pm	994	Academic Integrity & Academic Intelligence: Steadying the ship in uncertain waters	Geraldine McDermott, Senior Lecturer | Educational Developer, TUS		Academic Integrity & Artificial Intelligence
4.20pm	903 & 994 (Streamed)	CLOSE	Dr Carina Ginty, N-TUTORR Institutional Lead, ATU		